

Let's see if you know the response...

- 1 What's the difference between "buying a product" and "shopping for something"?
- 2 What does a receipt give evidence of? Is there any silent letter when you pronounce it?
- 3 What question do you ask someone not to repeat the full question again?
- 4 Could you keep a whole dialogue in Present Perfect? Why (not)?
- 5 Which one do we say "going shopping" or "going to shopping"?
- 6 Does "doing the shopping" exist? If so, what could it refer to?
- 7 What does "buying one's weekly groceries" mean?
