

“WHOSE”

- We use “whose” to express a relationship of possession, usually between two people, animals or things. The same form is used for sg. and pl.
- E.g. That’s the puppy whose mother is John’s bitch.
- E.g. Alan is the boy whose brother won the match.
- E.g. My car is the one whose wheels are punctured.
- E.g. The building on the corner is the one whose windows need to be repaired.

“WHOM”

- “Whom” is another relative pronoun which refers to people and which is used after prepositions. Notice English prepositions usually go at the end of the sentence but, sometimes, they can appear before the relative pronoun “whom” and that is considered formal language.
- E.g. (Informal) Nigel is the person who I bought this watch for.
- (Formal) Nigel is the person for whom I bought this watch.

Further examples...

- E.g. (Informal) Michelle was who I went to the cinema with.
- (Formal) Michelle was with whom I went to the cinema.
- E.g. (Informal) Ken Follet is the author who The Pillars of the Earth was written by.
- (Formal) Ken Follet is the author by whom The Pillars of the Earth was written.
- E.g. (Informal) Shanon is the woman who I talked to you of/about last week.
- (Formal) Shanon is the woman of/about whom I talked to you last week.

- Fill in the gaps with the right relative pronoun or adverb.

- 1 The pupil _____ books _____ aren't tidied won't get any prize.
- 2 The candidate _____ design we consider as the best is you!
- 3 That one to _____ I sent the letter is your aunt.
- 4 It's not me _____ left the door open!
- 5 _____ colour do you like more: blue or red?
- 6 Do you know _____ they put the car key?
- 7 The guy _____ mother works at hospital is my partner in my salsa class.
- 8 There is the town _____ my parents were born.

Guess the Word!

- 1 (Job)

- -It's somebody who repairs cars, motorbikes and alike.
- -It's someone who works in a garage.
- -It's a job in which you get dirty, especially your hands.

- 2 (Object)

- -It's something you take with you when going shopping.
- -It's usually a small thing to carry in your pocket or handbag.
- -It's something which contains the money or card you need for paying.

- 3 (Animal)

- -It's an animal which can fly.
- -It's usually very colourful and it's an exotic bird.
- -It's a bird which can learn to repeat short sentences.

- 4 (Place)

- -It's where little kids like spending time in.
- -It's somewhere where you can go for a picnic.
- -It's a place where you can sit on the grass and see children having fun on the playground.

- Provide three definitions for your partner to guess:
- 1

• 2

• 3

• 4

• 5

• 6

• 7

• 8

